GCEL provides Rs 2.23 lakh for Saksham Scholarship

■ Business Reporter
RAIPUR, Dec 21

GMR Chhattisgarh Energy Limited (GCEL) executing the various CSR activities near its project affected villages under its non-profit company GMR Varalakshmi Foundation. Apart from added activities and to support deprived and meritorious students from the affected villages pursuing higher studies in various technical colleges, 'Saksham scholarship' was launched in the year of 2012 and around Rs 10 lakh was funded to the needy students till 2016.

In the current year, a total of Rs 2.23 lakh Saksham scholarship was distributed to six girls and three boys for academics. They all are pursuing Engineering, nursing and B Ed courses in different colleges in the state. The Saksham Scholarship was distributed by COO- GCEL Ravi Shanker S, VP (Operation& Maintenance) Sandeep Pachpor, GM (HR and FMS) Nagaraj Keshavamurthy, GM Raxa Security Services Sadananda Udyawar, Mohammad Ansari, Kishore Rout, Sangram Kanungo, Atul Gupta and Dhanalakshmi KNV. Ravi Shanker briefed the student and urged them to study hard to realize their as well as their parent's dreams. He also said if any point of time if there is financial constraints in studies, employee of GCEL will come forward for support. Sandeep Pachpor suggested Foundation to develop a corpus funds to help these students to complete their courses. Similarly, other guests also addressed the gathering.

Management of GMR Chhattisgarh Energy Limited, guests and students posing for a group photo session.